

C'est vrai que tout le monde préfère payer moins cher et les prix pratiqués par les vendeurs chinois sont très alléchants. En vendant direct de la Chine, le vendeur évite les frais d'importation et la TVA, ce qui rend son produit 33% moins cher déjà. Puis, les frais postaux chinois sont subventionnés par l'état afin que ses entreprises soient plus compétitives sur le plan export.

Parfois, un produit contrefait peut être d'une qualité acceptable, avec pour résultat que le consommateur ne trouve pas de motif pour se plaindre. D'autres fois, elle n'est pas du tout ce qu'on attendait. En ce qui concerne Liquid ASS, on verra vers la fin de ce dossier ce que les clients Amazon ont dit après avoir été séduit par une version contrefaite.

Les Techniques de Séduction

Acheter en ligne peut être une très bonne expérience mais, au même temps, elle peut être très décevante. Comme la vente des produits contrefaits est complètement illégale, un vendeur de ce type de marchandise utilise plusieurs techniques pour masquer son vrai identité.

Le nom du vendeur peut être chinois ou le nom d'une entreprise. L'adresse est souvent trompeuse aussi. Il y a même les vendeurs qui réclament d'être en France tandis que la marchandise est toujours expédié de la Chine.

Ils aiment rajouter des images typique de la France pour donner l'impression que vous avez à faire avec une véritable boîte française !

Mais il sera surtout le prix qui va vous faire vous demander "Pourquoi payer plus cher ?" et comme disait l'araignée à la mouche « Bienvenue à ma toile ! »

L'original de Liquid Assets

Flacon plus grand avec une étiquette en papier de mauvaise qualité et une impression illisible. L'étiquette a des coins carrés. Le code à barres est une copie manifestement illégale. L'étiquette réclame une fabrication aux Etats-Unis.

Étiquette en plastique de haute qualité avec finition brillante. L'étiquette a des coins arrondis. Le code à barres s'applique à la version légale. Tête de pulvérisation plus grande et plus puissante.

1^{ère} version avec cou du

La durée de vie du produit ne dépasse pas
4 mois à partir de sa date de fabrication.

2^{ème} version avec cou du flacon arrondi

l'étiquette a été beaucoup améliorée mais le flacon lui-même est plus long et la tête plus petite.

Que puis-je faire ?

Même si la vente de produits contrefaits est illégale en Europe et aux Etats-Unis, certains vendeurs qui sont basés hors de la communauté Européenne savent que la procédure pour les poursuivre est longue et onéreuse. Vu les bénéfices alliés à une manque de risque, cette pratique est devenu un fléau.

Néanmoins, des solutions existent, si vous avez tombé dans le panneau...

1. Service Clients eBay

Votre commande est couverte par une garantie de satisfaction. Si vous n'êtes pas satisfaits, vous avez le droit d'ouvrir un litige contre le vendeur à travers le système eBay.

2. PayPal

Votre commande a été réglée par PayPal ou carte bancaire ? Votre achat est protégé par PayPal aussi et leurs termes de garantie spécifient : « Vous avez acheté un article de marque, mais avez reçu une imitation. » Ouvrir un litige directement avec PayPal serait la solution la plus rapide car la vente de contrefaçons n'est jamais tolérée. Pas seulement vous serez remboursé intégralement, mais le compte PayPal du vendeur risque d'être fermé.

3. Évaluation du vendeur

Suite à votre achat, eBay vous demande de laisser une évaluation sur la prestation du vendeur. C'est une opportunité pour vous de signaler aux autres acheteurs potentiels que ce vendeur propose des articles contrefaits.

4. Évaluation du produit

En haut et en bas de la page de l'annonce pour le produit, il y a un lien pour laisser votre avis. C'est encore une opportunité d'avertir les gens à ce qui les attend s'ils sont séduit par un prix trop beau pour être vrai.

Not at all what I anticipated. There is no fecal smell at all. There is a faint smell of cheese, that's almost pleasant if you like cheese. I've eaten cheese the tasted good but smelled worse than this. Don't waste your money. If you want this smell, buy an ounce or two of Limburger cheese instead. It'll be cheaper and smell worse.

This is the manufacturer. You have purchased a counterfeit (which has recently entered the market and smells like weak garlic). You need to demand a refund giving the reason that it is counterfeit. Keep in mind that Liquid Ass is made in the USA. If it ships from China or Korea, it is fake. After you return your fake bottle of LA and once you obtain an authentic bottle of Liquid ASS, please update your review. We are serious about selling a quality product.

I feel like I've been duped by all the rave reviews about this product. It doesn't even smell like anything. I had great plans for this thinking that it would be on the level of the glass vial stink bombs I pranked with in the past. This stuff is absolute garbage...and not in a good way. I sprayed it several times in my kitchen 30 seconds before my son walked through. No smell. I sprayed it in the garage for my girlfriend. She smelled nothing either. A total waste of money. And for all the Youtubers using this stuff, I'm guessing your videos are just clickbait.

Purchased same product while on vacation at gift shop and it worked exactly like I had expected with it having a horrible smell that lasted a cpl minutes then went away. Purchased this product from seller and it came in the exact same bottle as the product I had previously purchased but did not smell anything like it. Almost think product was not stored correctly since it almost has little smell at all. Shipping took longer than expected so I would not recommend.

This is not the same product that I've bought before. This is very weak. At best it smells like a fat woman's arm pit at the local DMV . The stuff before smells like an out house toilet on a 99 degree day. This appears watered down it's almost clear as water. Waste of money. I could probably catch a smellier fats from a cats ass.

Bought this as a prank to get back at a coworker. Walked by behind him one day and hit him with about 6 squirts, couldn't even tell. If you open the bottle and put your nose right to it, it smells like cheese and garlic, but only if you put your nose right to it

Ordered this as a prank and got pranked myself..or scammed more like. It was leaking when it arrived and when I smelled the leak, I realized it was just water. I thought maybe the package had gotten wet since it was raining in my area. When I opened he package, the bottle was unscrewed at the top and half gone but it was obviously water and not "liquid ass" SCAM!
